Lewisboro Republican Committee
Endorses Dr. Nan Hayworth
in Race for Congress

“...articulate and tough-minded...”

“...dedication to bring tax relief and jobs back the Hudson Valley...”

(Mt. Kisco) -- Republican Congressional hopeful Dr. Nan Hayworth has been endorsed by the Lewisboro Republican Committee in the race for Congress in NY District 19.

“Our committee was impressed. Dr. Hayworth is both articulate and tough-minded; she has the education, experience and dedication to bring tax relief and jobs back the Hudson Valley. She understands the problems faced by our local communities and believes that with the right leadership in Washington, America’s best days are ahead.” said Wayne Coluccini, Lewisboro GOP Chair.

Lewisboro is the most recent GOP Committee to endorse Hayworth. She has also been endorsed by the Bedford, Cortlandt, Dover, Fishkill, Highlands, Mount Kisco, Pound Ridge, Wallkill, Wappingers and Wawayanda Republican Committees. Other endorsements include the Tri-State Sons of Liberty, former three-term Orange County Executive Lou Heimbach, Town Supervisors Mike Sweeton (Warwick), Frank Fornario (Blooming Grove) and Kevin Quigley (Cornwall); Assemblywoman Nancy Calhoun; Former GOP Vice-Chairwoman Joan Wolfe; State Committeeman and former Cornwall GOP Chairman Merl Hutto; County Legislators Al Buckbee and Dan Depew; Highland Falls Mayor Joe D’Onofrio; Wawayanda GOP Chairman Rich Onorati; Highlands GOP Chairman Jim DiSalvo; Wawayanda Committeeman and prominent business leader Seth Arluck; Kevin A. Hamilton, Vice-Chairman of the Pawling Republican Committee, and Denis Castelli, Member of the Southeast Republican Committee.
